Children Unattended in Waiting Room

ICFE Policy: Children over the age of 8 may be left unattended for the length of time that is agreed upon by both the therapist and parent. During their time unattended the child should be prepared to sit quietly with blocks, coloring pages, or another activity with the understanding that rowdy behavior and loud voices may be disruptive to professionals and their clients in adjacent areas. Front desk staff is not responsible for monitoring children left unattended in the waiting room.

I, _____, am the parent or guardian of the child(ren) named below. I understand and accept the risks of leaving my child(ren) over the age of 8 years old unattended in the ICFE waiting room.

I am highly confident that my child is mature enough to be left unattended and make appropriate choices regarding use of furniture, materials, and interactions with other people.I believe my child(ren) is mature enough to remain in the waiting room without wandering outside. I understand ICFE cannot control or predict the other adults and children who will be present in the waiting room with my child, nor can the ICFE predict or control what will be said or done in my child's presence. I agree to ensure that any electronic devices my child is using have volume turned off or that my child has headphones for listening.

I release the ICFE and Davenport Real Estate, LLC from liability for injury to my child while left unattended in the waiting room, and I acknowledge my responsibility for payment to repair any damages caused by my child to property while left unattended.
